

CFPC ePanel #4: Mandatory CPD for Prescribing Opioids

Member Statistics

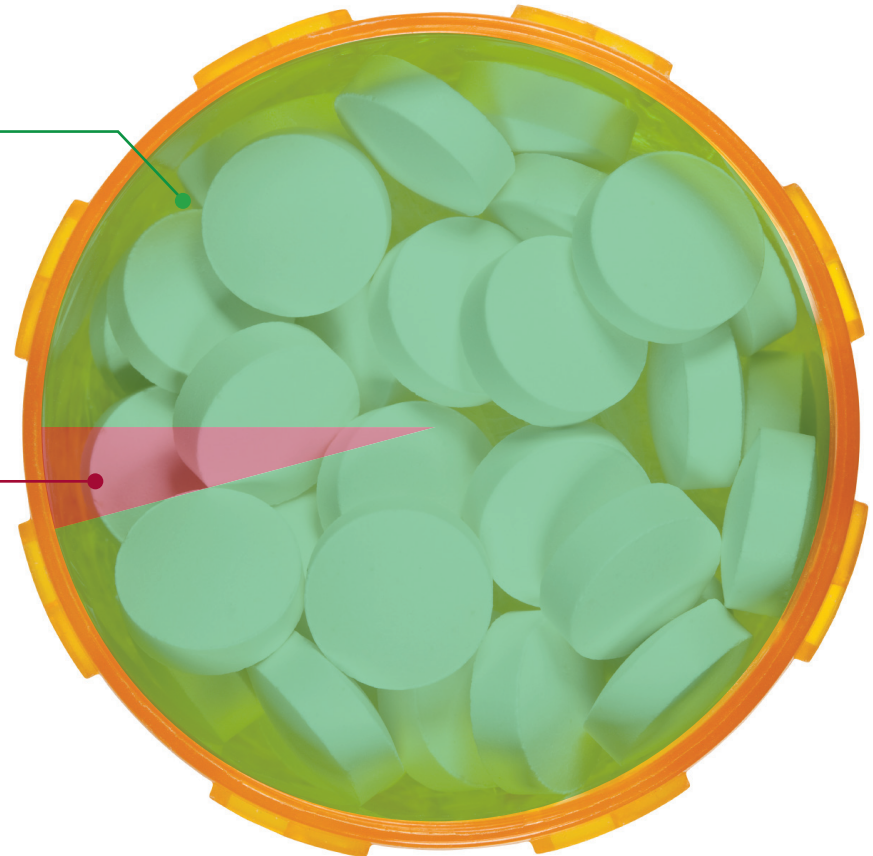

342 ePanel members completed the survey (42% response rate).

Q1. Do you prescribe opioids to adults?

Yes
96%

No
4%

CFPC ePanel #4: Mandatory CPD for Prescribing Opioids

Member Statistics

Q1i. Why don't you prescribe opioids?

54%

My practice does not involve treating pain in adults

0%

I am part of a group practice in which there is no prescribing of opioids

8%

I consider the risk of opioid prescribing outweigh the benefits

0%

Restrictions on my licence to practice prohibit my prescribing opioids

46%

Other

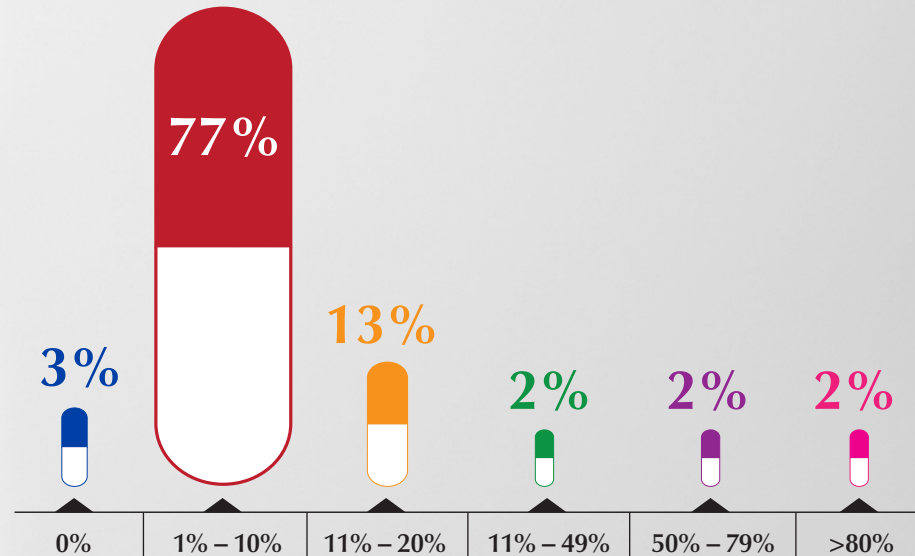

CFPC ePanel #4: Mandatory CPD for Prescribing Opioids

Member Statistics

Q2. In a typical week in your practice, what proportion of patients would present with pain severe enough for prescribing of opioids to be considered?

Patient Name: _____
Address: _____ Date: _____

R_x

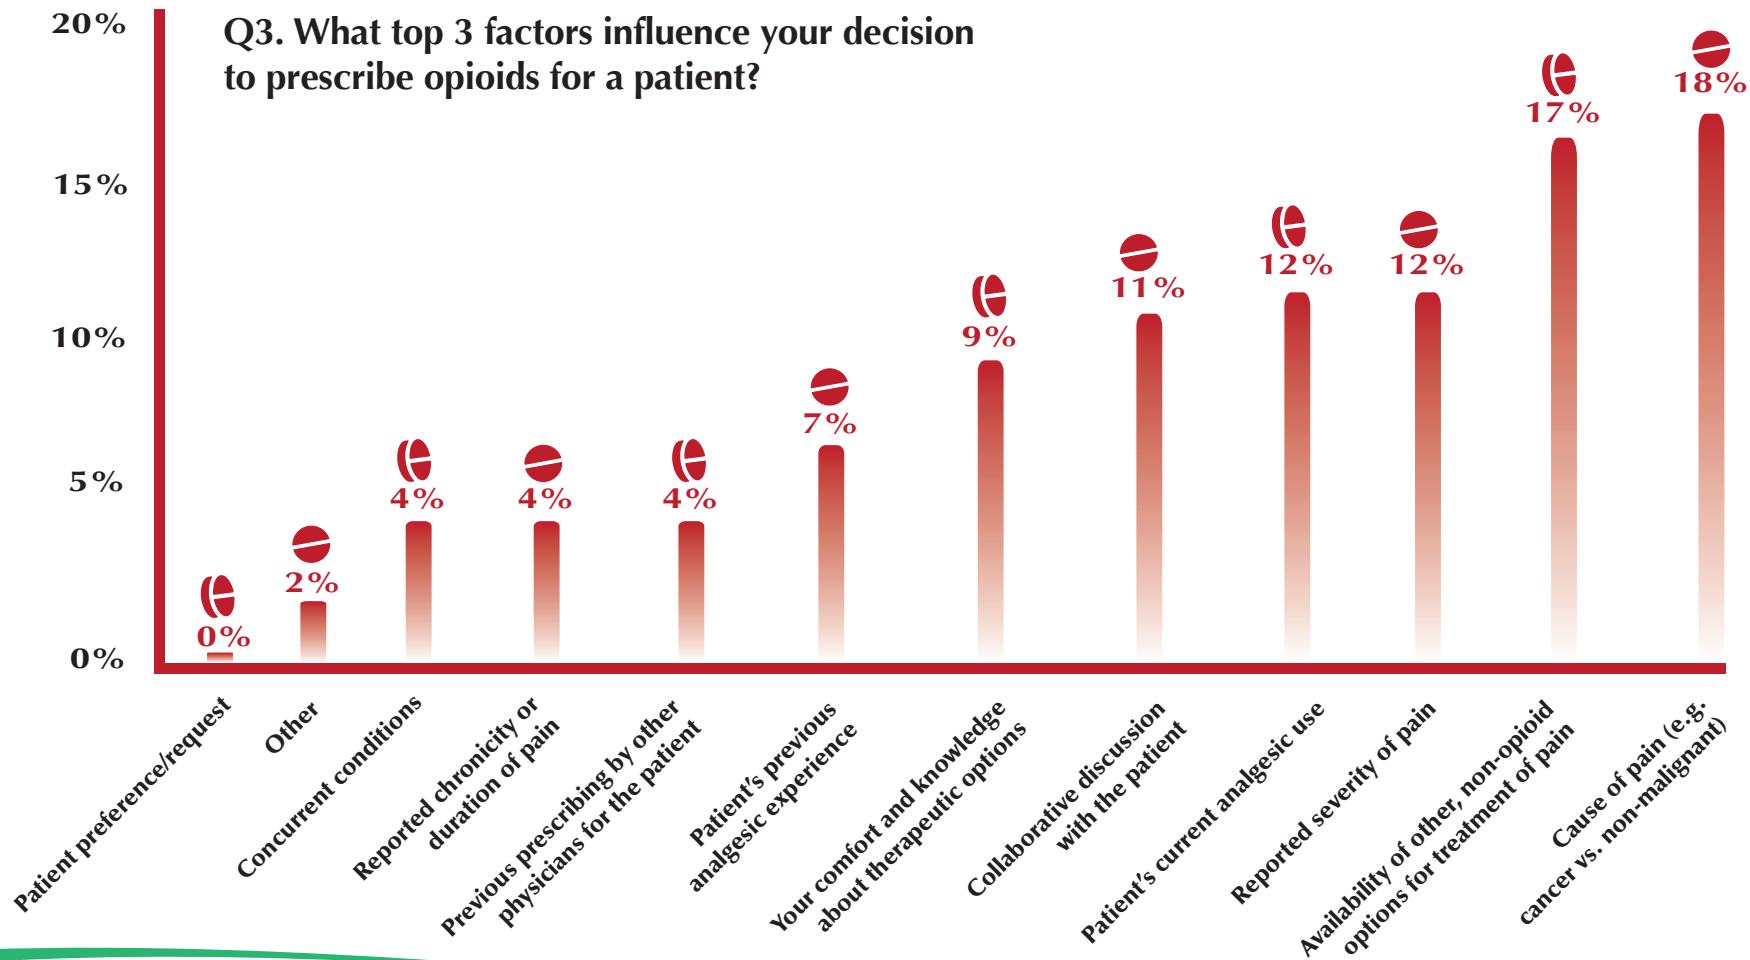

MD: _____
Signature: _____

CFPC ePanel #4: Mandatory CPD for Prescribing Opioids

Member Statistics

CFPC ePanel #4: Mandatory CPD for Prescribing Opioids

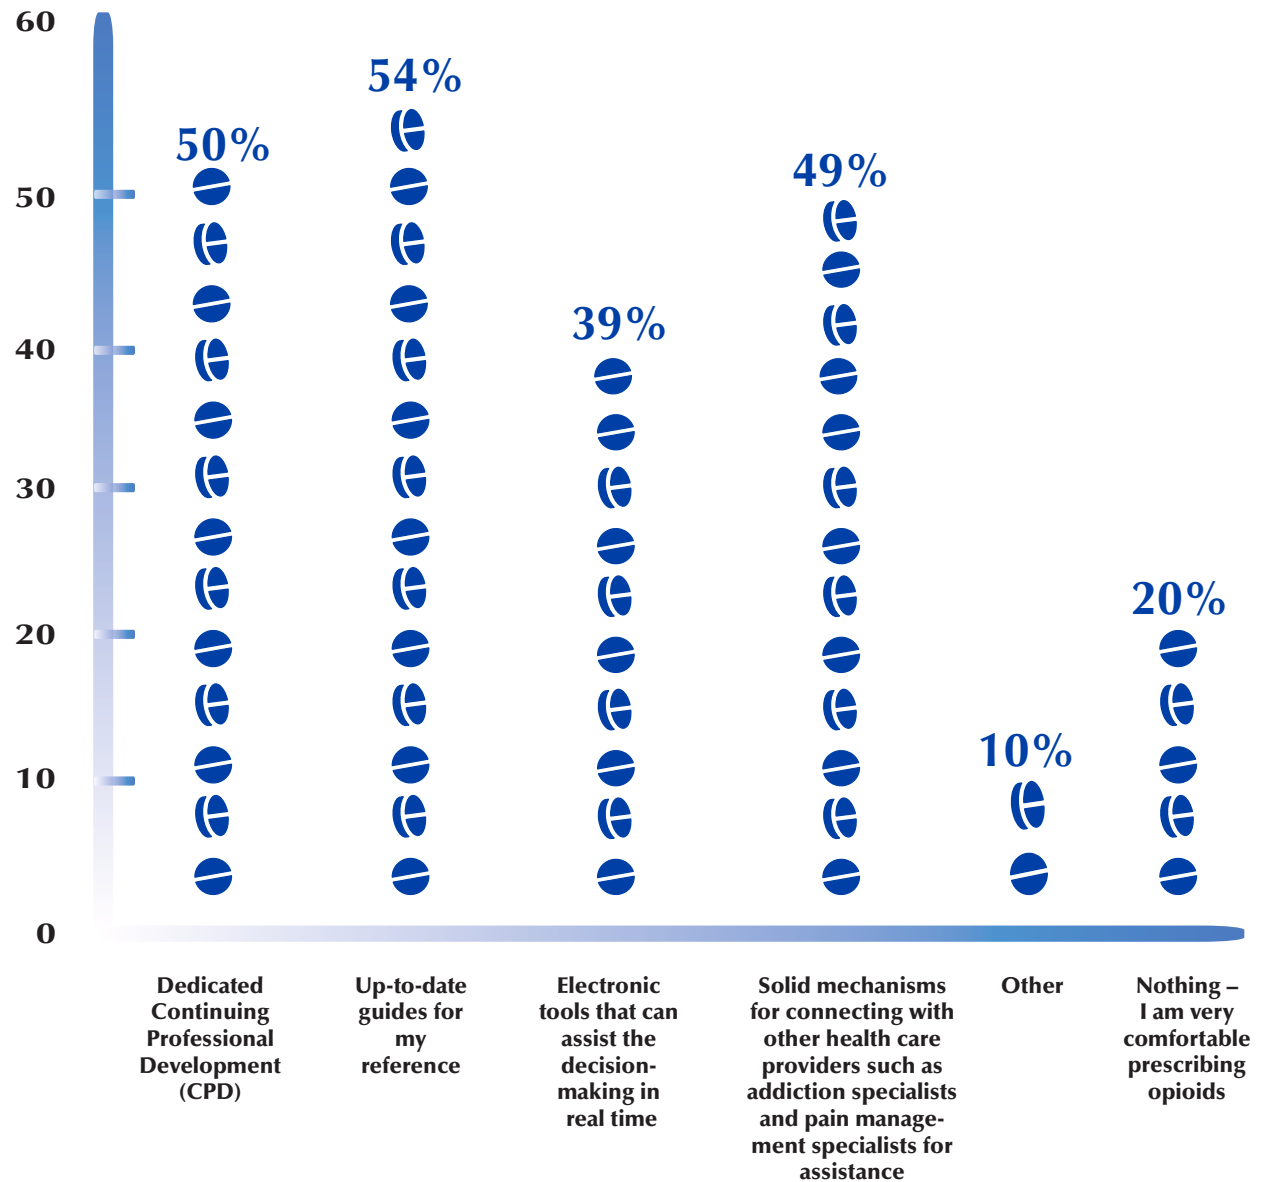

Member Statistics

Q4. What resources would help you to prescribe opioids effectively?

Patient Name: _____
Address: _____ Date: _____

R_x

MD: _____
Signature: _____

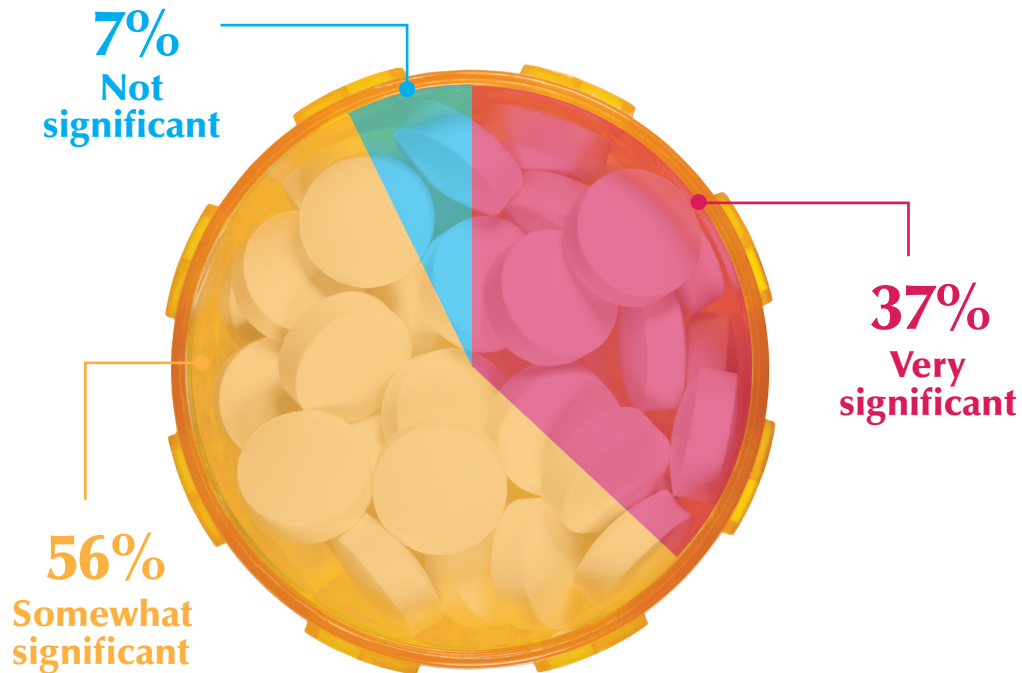

CFPC ePanel #4: Mandatory CPD for Prescribing Opioids

Member Statistics

Q5. To what extent do you believe that prescribing of opioids by family physicians is a significant contributor to the problems we now see with misuse and/or abuse of these drugs in our communities?

Q6. Would you support mandatory CPD on appropriate prescribing of opioids?

